AUTOIST IS BADLY HURT

John Reidenbaugh Victim of Accident.

ACETYLENE GAS EXPLODES

Owner Has a Narrow Escape From Death.

His Left Arm Badly Shattered, Shoulder Cut and Bruised—Automobile is Wrecked.

As a result of the explosion of an acetylene gas tank on his automobile, John Reidenbaugh, assistant superintendent of the Marion Steam Shovel shops lies at his home at No. 377 Windsor street, with a badly shattered arm and bruised body. His condition is not serious.

While making an experiment with acetylene gas with a view of inventing a means of generating it so that it could be used in the engine as the explosive power in place of gasoline, a terrible explosion occurred and Mr. Reidenbaugh was blown away a distance of several feet by the force. That he was not instantly killed is little less than miraculous. A flying missile struck his left arm and shattered the flesh and broke both bones in several places below the elbow. His left shoulder was also bruised and the shock was so severe as to effect the nerves.

The explosion was heard by almost everybody in the neighborhood and within a few minutes after it occurred scores of people assembled. People residing on Bellefontaine avenue, heard and felt the shock. Windows in houses located near the Reidenbaugh home, were broken and for a time there was intense excitement.

Mr. Reidenbaugh does not know exactly what caused the gas tank to explode, but is of the opinion that a current of electricity from the spark coil of the machine passed through it. There was considerable gas in the tank and the explosion was just as terrific as it was sudden. Mr. Reidenbaugh had run the machine out of the barn into the alley and was working by the light from a lantern. He was working almost over the tank when it exploded.

The automobile was almost torn into remnants. One of the seats was completely blown to pieces and the tearing was badly damaged. Fortunately, however, it was his old machine and the loss was not so great.

Mr. Reidenbaugh was carried into his home nearby and Dr. R. C. M. Lewis was summoned. It was thought at first that he had sustained serious internal injuries but the physician's examination disclosed that he had escaped most fortunately. His condition was improved Wednesday afternoon and recovery will follow rapidly.

EXHIBITION GAMES

Pool Experts to Meet Tonight in Handicap Contest.

Carl Seahelm, the one-armed pool champion of the world, will play an exhibition game with his partner "Kid" Adler, of New York at the Concord and Abel pool parlors at 8 o'clock this evening. It will be a handicap match, Adler agreeing to play his one-armed opponent 200 to 135. In a game at Columbus last week Seahelm made a run of 61 balls thus beating the world's record for a one-armed player. "Kid" Hogan of this city will referee the match.

DIVORCE MILL GRINDS AWAY

Entire Day Given Over to Hearings.

DECREE IS NOT AWARDED

In Suit of George Tipton vs. Mary Tipton.

Damage Suit of Charles W. Solomon Against C. D. & M. Railway Settled Out of Court.

Tuesday was divorce day in the court of common pleas, practically the entire day being given over to that class of litigation. Judge Young heard five cases and in four of them granted decrees. The third case was taken under advisement.

The cases heard were Flossie Ballard against Preston Ballard, Nellie J. Knapper against Ralph A. Knapper, Clara May Watkins against Harry Watkins, George D. Tipton against Mary Tipton and Eva Merkle against Otto Merkle.

The Tipton case was the only one in which a decree was not given. The hearing was started in the morning and was taken up in the afternoon after an adjournment of several hours. At the afternoon session Mrs. Tipton introduced additional testimony to show that she had been a victim of abuse. She claimed that on one occasion Tipton blacked her eyes. Tipton, who fought the case, claimed that he was the victim of abuse.

The last case heard during the day was that of Merkle against Merkle. Mrs. Merkle was given a decree. The troubles of this couple had been in court here for about two years. Merkle first brought suit and his wife contested. The court dismissed the case. Then Mrs. Merkle filed a petition and her husband did not appear to make a contest.

The case of Charles W. Solomon against the C. D. & M. Electric Railway, which was to have been heard in the court of common pleas Wednesday, was settled before the hearing was begun. The settlement was effected by the interurban company paying Solomon 10 per cent. of the judgment sought.

Solomon sued for $15,300 for injuries which he claimed to have sustained in a wreck near Newman's July 12, 1906. Solomon was braked on a work train which collided with a passenger coach.

In the divorce suit of Martin L. Russell against Thula Russell, the plaintiff has filed an answer to the defendant's cross petition. Through his attorneys, Mouser & Quigley, he denies all allegations.

The damage suit of Oriana Lilley against the Marion Railway Light and Power Company is assigned for hearing in the court of common pleas, Thursday.

Marriage licenses have been issued to John W. Barkopile and Stella E. Diller, Marion; Alfred J. Walker and Mary L. Alexander, Marion.

"FONY" ENJOYS AUTOMOBILE RIDE

Has a Number of Extremely Narrow Escapes.

Large Crowd Collects to Witness the Unusual Sight—Is it Man or Machine.

Shortly after noon today, Fonyello, the mysterious, made a trip over the principal streets of the city in an automobile. "Fony" made a decided habit with the people and several times he came nearly crashing with blocks and street cars. The sight of seeing a dummy driving an auto about the city is a most unusual one. Not a dummy? Well, then what is it, man or machine?

The act which appears at the family theater all week is creating much comment. It is a very clever turn. If a machine, it is a wonderful piece of mechanical work. If a man, he is about the best that has ever struck Marion.

Ferguson's Dixie Male Quartette have for many seasons stood at the head of the list of colored male quartettes in America and without a doubt, represent the highest type of the college-bred cultured negro vocalist.

Madame Neale Gertrude Buckner, Prima Donna Soprano, with the Dixies, is without contest given the place as the greatest soprano of her race, while Mr. W. C. Buckner has few if any equals as a singer and director. The management takes great pride in offering this not only the best organization of colored talent in the musical-world but also a band of the most moral refined and cultured ladies and gentlemen. By their unusual talent and exceptional courtesy and good breeding they do much to remove the unwarranted prejudice against the colored race.

Their selections are replete with Jubilee, New and Old Plantation Songs, Negro Melodies, Camp Meeting Songs, Comic Ditty Songs, Negro Lullabies, Vocal Ditty Mimicry, Sweet Sentiment Songs, Home, Cabin and River Songs of the Old Slavery Days, Comic, Classic, Sentiment Songs of the Southland.
